Wright & Percy Insurance Hires Director of Loss Control

BATON ROUGE, La. – Wright & Percy Insurance has hired Terry Hoyle as director of loss control. Hoyle previously served as risk control field manager and senior construction risk control specialist with Travelers Insurance in New Orleans.

In his new role, Hoyle will be responsible for promoting proactive client safety and risk management processes, assessing client operations to identify liability exposures and recommending appropriate controls, assisting clients to reduce their total cost of risk and partnering with clients to manage regulatory compliance issues.

With almost 20 years of experience in the risk management industry, Hoyle has held safety and risk management positions with Avondale Shipyards, Gibbs Construction, L.L.C., Citizens Utilities/Louisiana Gas Service, Hvide Marine/Seabulk Offshore, Ltd., Louisiana Offshore Oil Port and Aetna Life and Casualty.

A graduate of Southeastern Louisiana University with a bachelor's in industrial technology, Hoyle is a Certified Utility Safety Administrator (CUSA), a Certified Mold Remediator (CMR) and a Certified Professional Environmental Auditor (CPEA). Hoyle is a member of the Associated General Contractors and a Safety Committee Member of the Associated Builders and Contractors – Bayou Chapter.

Baton Rouge-based Wright & Percy Insurance, established in 1882, handles property and casualty, employee benefits, bonds, life and health, as well as specialization in pharmacy benefits consulting, value added loss control services, marine and construction. Wright and Percy is a division of BancorpSouth Insurance Services Inc. BancorpSouth is a $13 billion banking company based in Tupelo, Miss.
